Truro Betterment Committee News

There are lots of activities coming up in the next few months. Please watch the bulletin boards at the post office, bank and the windows at the library and city hall for flyers on upcoming events and in the local shopper.

We are now preparing for our annual Holiday Bazaar. It will be held at the High School on November 21st from 9am to 5pm. The Local Girl Scout Troop 142 will be serving cinnamon rolls for breakfast and chili and cinnamon rolls for lunch. There will be over 20 different vendors set up. We will be calling on people to donate cookies and candies for the bazaar starting the week of the 9th.

2010 Calendar has been sent to the publisher and will go on sale at the Holiday Bazaar.

Farmers Market Update: The response from the surveys show an interest in a Farmers Market next year. We will now start contacting vendors to see what kind of an interest they have in coming to Truro.

December Activities:

The Truro Betterment Committee will be caroling this year we have choose to do this on Sunday December 13th from 4-8 weather permitting, if it is to cold that day it will be the next Sunday December 20th from 4-8. During our caroling around town we will be judging outside Christmas lights. Have your houses and yards decorated there will be prizes for the top 3 winners. Prizes will be announced in the December newsletter and winners will be announced in the January newsletter.

We are also looking for people interested in entering there homes for a Christmas Tour of Homes. This will be held the same day that the Lions have Santa at the Hall. There will be cash prized for the top 3 winners. If you are interested in entering your home and would like more details please call Jennifer 515-975-2148 by 11-30-09.

Volunteer of the Month: Tammy Brown

Tammy has lived in the Truro Community for over 20years. Tammy is the owner of the Truro Tavern. She is a member of the Fire and Rescue Association and is on the City Council.

Tammy helps with the fundraisers, not only for the Fire and Rescue Assoc., but the Truro Betterment Committee as well. You can always count on Tammy to help with what ever is needed. She donates items for raffle prizes, food for events, and lots of personal time.

Thank-you Tammy for all that you do.
